PHILOSOPHY

As an El Sistema inspired artist, my goal is to bring a sense of identity to all those who participate in music making. Maestro Abreu would say, “the real debt of poverty is the lack of identity.” And it is this debt which I seek to pay in the hearts and minds of all the people that I reach through music education.

COMMUNITY

I have begun work in my region of Orange County to bring the beauty of an El Sistema inspired model to underserved communities. Under the name “Incarnation” the music model has already garnered support in the community to put instruments into the hands of children for further music education opportunities.
